CALL FOR BOOK AND JOURNAL PRESENTATIONS

IUAES CONGRESS ST. PETERSBURG MAY 25-31, 2022

WORLD ON THE MOVE: MIGRATION AND COMMUNICATION

The Organizing Committee invites the participants of the IUAES 2022 Congress in Saint Petersburg to submit proposals for presentations of their recently published books on topics related to the theme of the Congress, “World on the Move: Migration and Communication.” We also invite editors of academic journals in anthropology and ethnology to present the latest issues of their journals. After the Committee reviews the proposals, it will assign a time slot for each presentation on the Congress program. As we would like these events to be as interactive as possible, we suggest that each book session involves a moderator and discussant(s) in addition to the book author. Journal presentations could be held by members of the editorial board and involve journal authors and(or) publisher representatives as participants.

Rules and Guidelines:

- Participating books must have been first published no earlier than 2020.
- The time available for each presentation is 45 minutes.
- Each proposal must contain:
 - 1) the book’s or the journal’s publishing details;
 - 2) information about the moderator of the session, who will be responsible for running the session and communicating with other participants: name, institutional affiliation, contact details;
 - 3) information about the presenters, such as author(s), editor(s), and discussants: their names, institutional affiliations, contact details;
 - 4) for book presentation: a brief abstract of the book and how it is relevant to the theme of the Congress (300 words);
- If the book’s author does not participate in the presentation, we would need their written consent for the event.
- Presentation must be conducted in English, whereas books and journals can be in any language.
- Members of book and journal presentation sessions should pay the Congress registration fee and IUAES membership fee to participate.
